Hamadeh Named Educator of the Year

The founder and leader of Star International and Universal Learning Academies in Dearborn Heights and of the Universal Academy in Detroit, has received the Educator of the Year Award from the American-Arab Anti-Discrimination Committee. Nawal Hamadeh was recognized for her contributions to education. Nawal is also the 2007 Charter School Administrator of the Year and a member of MAPSA's Board of Directors.

MAPSA congratulates Nawal for her outstanding accomplishments!
